

International Health Opportunities

Supporting International Health Efforts While At Home

1. Join, work with or support an organization

- APA Special Interest Group (SIG) on International Health
Anna Mandalakas amm13@po.crwu.edu or Joseph Sherman joe.Sherman@multicare.org
- AAP Section on International Child Health (SOICH)
Call AAP at 800-433-9016 for application. Website should be available Fall 2004 with newsletters and activities of the section (access from www.aap.org ).
- Join Health Volunteers Overseas (HVO) www.hvousa.org
- Join IHMEC, the International Health Medical Education Consortium.
Excellent listserv for faculty members, especially those working with residents and students. Website www.ihmec.org has great resources for teaching international health issues and helping students/residents find electives abroad.
- Join the Global Health Council www.globalhealth.org
Washington DC based advocacy group, with resource laden website and weekly email newsletter, annual conference; membership open to individuals and organizations.
- Support advocacy organizations (Amnesty International www.amnesty.org or www.aiusa.org; Oxfam International www.oxfam.org or www.oxfamamerica.org; Physicians for Human Rights www.phrusa.org)
- Provide logistical support for nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)--work with those based in your area.

2. Collect and donate medical supplies and equipment

- Start a REMEDY program at your hospital (REMEDY, New Haven, CT 203-737-5356, www.remedyinc.org )
- For equipment, American Medical Resources Foundation 508-580-3301, www.amrf.com
- World Medical Mission/Samaritan's Purse, www.samaritanaspurse.org , accepts equipment and supplies, and website spells out what they need. Click on World Medical Mission, then Donating Medical Materials
- International Medical Equipment Collaborative (IMEC)
Portsmouth, NH 978-388-5522; www.imecamerica.org
- Global Medicine Network (a web-based network created by the Massachusetts Medical Society; post equipment you have available and receive email requests from developing countries) www.globalmedicine.org
- American Medical Association's WorldScopes Program. Collect used stethoscopes and mail to WorldScopes—they deliver to developing countries. www.caring4humanity.org
- American Medical Student Association (AMSA) See their Medical Instrument and Equipment Recycling Program, MIERP. <http://www.amsa.org/global/ih/mierp2.cfm#1>

3. Collect and donate medical books and journals

- AAP Section on International Child Health (SOICH) Book Repository
Texts less than five years old (unless atlases or anatomy, etc.); specific journals in batches of 3-6 months worth of issues; for details on what is needed, email Donna Staton, dstaton@massmed.org. Books/journals can be mailed to: SOICH Book Repository, Weston Pediatric Physicians, 486 Boston Post Road, Weston, MA 02493.
- Global Medicine Network www.globalmedicine.org After joining the network (free), members can post the books they are willing to mail to colleagues in developing countries. Interested parties email you to request.
- Medical Education Cooperation with Cuba (MEDICC). Their Medical Literature Project collects medical books and journals for medical libraries in Cuba. See www.medicc.org Click on “What’s New at MEDICC” then on MEDICC Programs on the left.
- World Medical Mission/Samaritan’s Purse, www.samaritanspurse.org, also takes medical texts less than 5 years old. Click on World Medical Mission.
- American Medical Student Association (AMSA) Medical Textbook Donations and Recycling <http://www.amsa.org/global/ih/textbook.cfm>

4. Other ways to get involved

- Stay informed
  - BBC on NPR
  - Read World Health News www.WorldHealthNews.harvard.edu from the Harvard School of Public Health
  - Read Humanitarian Times www.humanitarianimes.org or subscribe to their free email newsletter HTimes@msn.com
  - subscribe to NGO newsletters:
    - Global Health Council www.globalhealth.org (weekly email newsletter superb)
    - Doctors of the World www.doctorsoftheworld.org
    - Health Volunteers Overseas www.hvousa.org
  - Read UNICEF’s “State of the World’s Children” every year www.unicef.org Click on Publications. 2004 issue is on “Girls, Education and Development”
- Raise money, support NGOs
- Make your voice heard
  - Contact your representative and senator when key bills are debated
  - Sign petitions, such as the Physicians for Human Rights “Call to Abolish the Death Penalty for Juvenile Offenders” as proscribed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child http://www.phrusa.org/campaigns/juv\_justice/call\_to\_abolish\_a.html
  - Join one of Oxfam International’s many campaigns (such as the Million Faces petition for arms control) www.oxfam.org
  - Join the Physician for Human Rights Asylum Network (volunteer medical services for refugees/asylum seekers, write letters on behalf of asylum seekers, give a presentation on health and human rights). For details on these see www.phrusa.org Click on projects, Asylum Network.

- Care for immigrants, internationally adopted children
- Work on research projects relevant to developing countries—help eliminate the “10/90 Gap.” Less than 10% of the worldwide expenditure on health research and development is devoted to the major health problems of 90% of the population.
  - Join the Canadian Coalition for Global Health Research
P.O. Box 132, Postal Station “B”, Ottawa, ON K1P 6C3
<http://www.cghrc.ca/cghrc.html>
  - See the Global Forum for Health Research www.globalforumhealth.org
Listserve and free publications available.
- Participate in teleconference/email medical consults
  - Individually by email (e.g. Waluyo Jati Clinic, Indonesia. Contact Dr. Arthur Kawilarang, walujt1@sby.dnet.net.id , or via the Global Medicine Network, www.globalmedicine.org ).
  - Involve your hospital or institution in videoconferencing (e.g. Medical Missions for Children, www.mmissions.org is seeking US partner institutions, contact Dr. William Bithoney, wbithoney@MERCYHEALTH.ORG).
- Support colleagues abroad (those traveling to work; those in developing countries)
- Network with other medical schools/public health schools/residencies with international health programs--subscribe to their newsletters: e.g. St. Joseph’s Regional Medical Center’s “Residents and International Health” (editor Kevin Ericson MD, ericsonk@sjrmc.com ); Case Western Reserve University/Rainbow Babies Children’s Hospital’s “World Notes” (phone 216-368-6321); Michigan State University’s Institute of International Health Newsletter (iih@msu.edu , phone 517-353-8992); University Departments and Programs on the American Medical Student Association (AMSA)’s website at <http://www.amsa.org/global/ih/ihres.cfm> scroll down, it’s near the bottom.
- Start an International Health Curriculum at your institution or program (see AMSA website’s International Health Resources www.amsa.org/global/ih/curriculum.cfm )--or even just a lecture series or library of resources.

Finding An Appropriate Overseas Volunteer Assignment (start early if you can!)

1. Ways of arranging time away

- Use vacation time
- Work part time
- Share positions
- Take a sabbatical
- Open a branch office overseas
- Take it up as a career

2. Terms of assignments

- Short term medical or medical/dental team (typically 10 days – 2 weeks)
- Short term surgical team (typically 2 weeks)
- Short term assignment at a year-round hospital or clinic site (often 2 weeks – 1 month)
- Assignment with larger relief organization, e.g., Doctors Without Borders (Medicins Sans Frontieres, MSF), Doctors of the World, International Rescue Committee (IRC) (3 months –3 years)
- Longer term placements (1 year – to lifetime, home leave available)
- “On Call” relief work, for those with experience or training, can sign up for Child Disaster Network, www.aap.org/disaster

3. Work settings

- Urban (may or may not be tertiary)
- District level (“community hospital”)
- Health center
- Rural or village level health clinic
- Community health worker (CHW)-level health post
- Mobil medical team
- Refugee setting
- Conflict area

4. Range of duties

- Clinical
- Teaching
- Public health/development
- Research

5. Getting information about opportunities

- Professional organizations
- Mailing lists
- Referral organizations (IMVA www.imva.org , Medics Travel, <http://www.medicstravel.org> )
- Inquire in person while traveling abroad
- Get leads by word of mouth
- Medical journals (JAMA), newspapers, magazines
- Get on mailing lists
- Review organization literature and websites (see below for lists)

- Contact NGOs and hospitals directly. Lists of organizations can be found at:
  - International Medical Volunteers Association www.imva.org Click on “Help Wanted” for a long list of organizations that need volunteers. Or post yourself as an available volunteer; click on “Post Your Skills.”
