

AMERICAN PEDIATRIC SOCIETY
NOMINATIONS FOR THE
2008 JOHN HOWLAND AWARD
Nomination Receipt Deadline: August 31, 2007

It is time again for members to submit nominations for the American Pediatric Society's highest award, the John Howland Medal, for 2008. This award has been given since 1952 to honor those who, by their contribution to pediatrics, have aided in its advancement. As indicated in Article II of the Society's Constitution:

The objectives of this Society shall be to bring together men and women for the advancement of the study of children and their diseases, for the prevention of illness and the promotion of health in childhood, for the promotion of pediatric education and research, and to honor those who, by their contributions to pediatrics, have aided in its advancement. This Article forms the actual basis for the selection of the Howland Recipient.
